- Cancel up to 1 month before the retreat and 50% of the workshop fee is due.
- If you cancel after September 20th 2025, the full amount including the accommodation will be due. -
- If someone else takes your place, your paid sum will be refunded except for the € 100,- down payment.
- If we have to cancel the retreat, you get all your payments to us refunded. Taetske and the organizing team are not liable for other costs arising from course cancellation.

Conditions of participation

- As this is an advanced retreat for those who have completed the Inner Core. When you have done the Inner Core with another teacher, it is required having done a starters workshops with Taetske, or some other non-silent ones. When in doubt, please contact Taetske.
- You are expected to be skilled in using the Clarity Process tools by yourself and use these tools regularly at home.
- The retreat offers methods of self-help, and in no way replaces necessary medical or therapeutic help. You participate at your own risk and neither Taetske, nor the organizing team, nor the residence place can be held liable for any loss, theft or damage to personal property and/or injury acquired during the retreat or as an alleged consequence.
- All participants at the retreat are themselves responsible for what they do, give, say, discover and experience. If you have any particular mental or physical condition, illness or incapacitation, you have to inform Taetske through email before the start of the retreat (taetske@taetske.com). This does not release you from your own responsibility.
- It is an offline retreat. All digital and internet connecting devices will be collected at the second day of the retreat and returned a day before the ending. Make sure to organize your work and home life accordingly. Group phones will be available on the non silent days for contact with your loved ones. An emergency phone number will be provided.
- It is not allowed to make personal recordings during the retreat.
- It is not possible to do the retreat partially, come later or leave earlier.
- Accommodation costs are to be paid to the venue at arrival.
